

Enthusiastic Throngs Crowding Paris Streets

THE STRASBOURG MONUMENT, WHICH FOR DECADES HAS BEEN VEILED WITH BLACK AS A SYMBOL OF MOURNING FOR LOST ALSACE-LORRAINE, BUT NOW DECKED WITH FLAGS AND FLOWERS. (© Kadel & Herbert.)

A SEA OF HUMANITY SURGED BACK AND FORTH THROUGH THE PLACE DE L'OPERA, PARIS, NOV. 11, 1918. TO THE LEFT IS THE AVENUE DE L'OPERA; TO THE RIGHT THE RUE DE LA PAIX.
